Salt Lake High School Boy Almost Loses His Life.

After falling and sliding 980 feet down the precipitous slope of Mount Ritter in the California Sierras, Gleed Miller, a senior at the Salt Lake high school, and of Glenn Miller of the Home Savings and Investment company, is still alive and well on the road to recovery. Young Miller, with his parents, returned Monday night from California.

inght from California.

In company with a party of San Francisco explorers, Mr. Miller and his son attempted to scale Mount Ritter, Mount Dana and Mount Whitney. In the attempt on Mount Ritter young Miller lost his foothold and went over a small em-bankment. He kept sliding down the slope and he was only saved from death by catching in a clump of shrubbery at the yery brink of a cliff hundreds of feet

Statement Burns and Jeweler Unable to Prove His Claim.

Henry Wolff lost his suit against W. H Carter, a local jeweier, through a verdict rendered by a jury in Judge George G. Armstrong's division of the district court yesterday. Wolff, a wholesale jeweier of Alameda and San Francisco, claimed to have sold jewelry to Carter on October 5 1905, amounting to $691.50. The duplicate statement was burned up in the San Francisco fire in the spring of 1906, it was claimed, and therefore there was noth-ing standing against Carter. The jury brought in a report for Carter on the belief that there was no ground for an ac-

Theissen, the new director in charge, is nonplused. All over the continent Jupiter Pluvius is conspiciously absent. Well defined areas of high barometric pressure extend over the northwest, the intermountain region, the Canadian borders and throughout the south and east. A small storm is hang-ing over the great lakes, but up to date has not gone into action. THREE APPEALED CASES ARGUED YESTERDAY

Three cases appealed from the district courts of the state were argued and subcourts of the state were argued and submitted before the supreme court yesterday, as follows: Ann R. Gay against the Young Men's Co-op. Mercantile Institution and A. R. Rockhill, appellants, from the Fourth district court, Judge J. E. Booth: Alvin E. Horton, appellant, against Andries Roghaar, from the Second district court, Judge J. A. Howell; the Sierra-Nevada Lumber company, appellant, against John McCormick and others, from the Third district court, Judge C. W. Morse.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor The Herald-Republican: The Koreans of the United States have been anxiously awaiting good news from the nations of the East, but the news has ever been bad. Japanese armies have been destroying the Koreans. They have killed our patriots. Ito, the savage, came to Korea with his Japanese. Whatever he wanted he took. He robbed peaceful homes and villages; he murdered our friends, our fathers and mothers; he took away our independence. He ruled as an away our independence. He ruled as an absolute monarch, judging without trial or jury. Protest and remonstrance brought only increased severity. We could do nothing, for they had a powerful and cruel army. In our sorrow and affliction we could only pray to the Lord our God.

Lord our God. October 25 a telegram from Tokio an-nounced that Ito had been assassinated by a Korean. The news was most unex-pected. We would not commend mur-der, but there are crimes for which men Ito was trying to kill twenty millions of Koreans. What is the death of one man in comparison with the death of millions? If the Koreans had not killed him he would have killed the Koreans. LEE KWANG YOUN.

TELL ICEMAKER HE IS NOT NECESSARY HERE

Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Ever since its discovery, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sangulue expectations of the eminent specialists who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The trible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, glving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.
